AN INNOVATIVE TRAINING SEMINAR FOR DEVELOPMENTAL EDUCATION Inspirational seminar for early childhood professionals

Colorado Springs, Colo. – The Colorado Springs School (CSS) and Child Care Connections will co-host a training session for childhood educators and professionals on Saturday, August 23, 2008 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. The event will take place in the Louisa Performing Arts Center on The Colorado Springs School campus and will host renowned early childhood educators Bev Bos and Michael Leeman. They will collaborate to teach educators about their fields of expertise in creative art, music, language, and early childhood socialization. The cost of the seminar is $55, which includes a boxed lunch and four training credit hours for professionals.

This seminar will be lively, fast-paced, inspirational and filled with effective, ground-breaking ideas that teachers can put to use immediately in their own early childhood education programs. In the afternoon, Bos and Leeman will demonstrate how music can be used as a teaching tool in an interactive concert.

“Development in the early childhood years is essential to be prepared for the next step of education, a theory which Bos and CSS share,” said Eve Sckolnik, Director of Admission and Financial Aid at The Colorado Springs School. “This seminar will assist early childhood educators to enhance quality education for children in every learning stage.”

Bev Bos is an internationally renowned presenter and one of the nation’s foremost experts on preschool education. She is in great demand as a seminar leader and speaker at workshops and conferences for educators across the globe. When her knowledge is combined with Michael Leeman’s creative talent, teachers are immediately inspired.

Space is limited for this seminar. Register before August 20, 2008 by calling Child Care Connections, Inc. at (719) 638-2070 or visit www.childcareconnections.net.
